Share your Story

As the RCCA begins to plan celebrations for its 75th anniversary, we would like to collect some stories for our archives.

Whether you’re a current or past patient, physician, employee, donor, friend or family member, we hope you will share your memories about your experiences with the RCCA.

Janet Reynolds, with daughter Suzy, shared her stories from the early years of this organization. They sat near a portrait of Mrs. Wiley R. Reynolds Sr. who is credited as one of the important founders.

The current property at 300 Royal Palm Way was donated by the Reynolds family. Janet recalled that “my husband was President of First National Bank so he helped as Treasurer; when he went to war I helped in that role.”

Since 1940, the scrapbook of newspaper articles documents the 75 year history of a consistent mission and reliable services that continue today.

Summer

a great time to work together with our therapists to develop an exercise program.

The Rehabilitation Center for Children and Adults provides individual quality services thanks to donors who respond to our mailings and special events. The Annual Spring Luncheon raises funds and friends to support our programs.

Like most 5 year old boys, Randy Boike is a Super Heroes fan. He demonstrated his strength with Spring Luncheon chairwomen Tina Roberts and Tori Baker. Because of weakness from cerebral palsy, he has received services from multiple community programs. He began in the RCCA Preschool in August 2013 and will graduate into a regular neighborhood kindergarten in summer 2014. In Physical Therapy, Susan Holmes reports his leg braces and walker provide increasing independence for safe ambulation. Occupational Therapist Donna Holmstock describes his improving sitting postural control and hand strength so that fine-motor skills are better. Leslie Kelly, Preschool Director, says everyone comments on his happy personality and terrific motivation to be independent.

Contributors to the Spring Luncheon include past chairwomen Christine Aylward, Nellie Benoit, Trish Donnelley, Paget Ferrell, Denise Hanley, Susan Kirkpatrick, Pam Mettler, Carrie Murray, Aileen Newquist, Julie Reveley, Crista Ryan, Sue Strickland and Joan Van der Grift.

Committee members include Ann Blades, Carol Collins, Mary Harper, Laura Johnston, Karyn Lamb, Roshan Massoumi, Boo Oelsner, Kim Raich, Alice Randolph, Linda Salandra-Dweck, Patt Sned and Lucy Webster.

Gunster, Attorneys at Law, represented by Dan Hanley, is the corporate sponsor for this event.
